

Professor Ehud R. Toledano

Abbreviated Academic CV

BA	Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 1974
MA	University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, 1975; Princeton University, 1977
PhD	Princeton University, 1979
Post-Doc	ARCE (Cairo, Egypt), 1979-80
Research and teaching	ARIT (Istanbul, Turkey), 1977-78 Senior Associate Member, St. Antony's College, University of Oxford, 1986-87 Senior Research Fellow, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, 1993-94 Visiting Professor, UCLA, 2000 Maurice Amado Visiting Professor, UCLA, 2001 Visiting Professor, UCLA, 2002
Invited guest lectures	Harvard, Princeton, Stanford, Michigan, NYU, London (SOAS), UCLA, UCSD, METU (Ankara)

* * *

Positions Held

Holder, University Chair for Ottoman & Turkish Studies, 2007-2013

Director, Program in Ottoman & Turkish Studies, 2013 to present

Member of the Executive Board, 2005 to 2009

The top, 11-member governing body of Tel Aviv University

Director, the Graduate School of Historical Studies, 2004 to 2008

At the time, the largest graduate unit at Tel Aviv University, with 180 PhD candidates (at the time, also 520 MA students) and 91 faculty (of whom about 50 actively supervise doctoral dissertations); the School also serves as the platform for the dissemination of its faculty and students' scholarly output by sponsoring national and international workshops, conferences, colloquia, and regular series of named and other public lectures

Founding Co-Director (with Professor Eyal Zisser), Executive MA Program in Contemporary Middle Eastern Studies, 2004 to 2010